

APPLICATION - A3

Friend

The applicant has applied for the Artist Development Program held by The Culture House and Störling Dance Theatre.

Störling Dance Theatre is a neo-classical dance company with influence from Corporal Mime and Modern Dance techniques directed by Mona Störling-Enna. Best known for their powerful story telling productions, SDT takes audiences soaring to different worlds and to the heart of the human experience. With eternity in their hearts Störling Dance Theatre dances with vitality and passion.

The Artist Development Program is for dancers gifted in artistic expression, seeking to develop their skills as they discover where to apply their talents.

It is important for us to see that the applicant grows in every area of life while working and learning with us. Therefore, we kindly ask you to answer the questions below carefully and realistically. We are aware that a questionnaire such as this cannot give a 100% true picture of the applicant. Therefore, you are very welcome to write additional comments on a separate piece of paper, or contact us. Thank you!

Please comment on the applicant background, if you know

Functioning in a group, following teacher's and staff's leading, insecurities, healthy communication skills are all a part of a successful year. Most of the difficulties that students have over a year is related to a lack of development in these areas. Part of the program revolves around educating students in these areas so it is not a negative mark against them if they have weaknesses. Please explain any weaknesses in these or related areas so that we can best serve our students:
